Full job description

Your new company

Our client has an outstanding reputation in the market, and can offer their Associates the highest quality of work in the corporate and leverage finance space. The team is ambitious, knowledgeable, and dedicated to their work, which has led them to becoming recognised as a leader in the finance industry.

Your new role

There are two roles – one is at the junior to mid-level (2-4 PQE), and the other at the senior level (5+ PQE). Both roles will involve working on the full range of corporate and leveraged finance transactions advising large corporate entities, financial institutions, and private equity firms. Your involvement in these matters will depend on your level of experience, and you will be supported by the Partners in the team, as needed.

What you'll need to succeed

In order to be considered for these roles, you will have the following experience:

- Currently admitted to practice as a Lawyer in Australia
- At least 2 years of corporate, leveraged / acquisition finance experience
- Experience at the mid-tier, or top-tier level is ideal

What you'll get in return

You will be offered high quality work on finance transactions within a top practice in Sydney. You will receive a very competitive salary, towards the top of the market, and have access to first class benefits.
